

Masters in Education, Globalisation and International Development Admissions Written Task

Please note: If you are applying for the 1-year full time MPhil, please complete the task below. This route is not open to part-time MEd or PGCE-MEd or PACES-MEd applicants.

Thank you for your application. Applicants should write a short essay (1,500 – 2,000 words including references) outlining your research interests in an area relevant to the study of Education, Globalisation and International Development.

In the essay, please ensure that you are making references to relevant empirical publications, drawing on a critical and reflexive lens. Your essay should cover the following questions:

- What are your research interests and how do they relate to the focus of the programme?
- In what ways have your previous studies, work or other experience prepared you to undertake research in the field of international education and development?
- What do you see as the main global priorities/challenges in the field of international education and development?

Please upload this with your other application documents. Applications cannot be considered unless the written work has been received. Essays beyond the word limit will not be accepted.
